GIVE YOUR BRAIN A BREAK

The world can definitely feel a little scary and it's natural to feel overwhelmed right now.

Look after your mental health by:

- Having a break from social media
- Use your phone settings to limit your screen time per day or use an app like 'Hold' or 'Forest' to help you stay focused
- Limit yourself to only checking the news once or twice a day
- Distract yourself with lighthearted TV, Films or Podcasts
- Start a new book you've wanted to read for a while
- Practice Mindfulness with free apps such as: Headspace, Aura, Calm, Stop Breathe Think

CHECKLIST

Have you made a revision/study timetable?

Have you downloaded a couple of apps to support your studies?

Have you been reading?

Have you completed an online workout video?

Have you tried out a mindfulness app?

Have you checked the Aimhigher social media for new content?

KEEP HEALTHY

It's just as important to physically look after yourself as well as mentally.

- Aim for 7-9 hours sleep a night
- Use the extra time to prepare delicious meals and try to eat your 5 a day
- Drink plenty of water
- Get some exercise completing a Youtube workout video
- Set yourself a challenge (like the Runtastic 28 day workout challenge, or 30 day squat challenge)
